

and regular term of said courts after each and every general election held thereafter, a fair and complete list of the white male taxable inhabitants or residents of said county, whose names appear on the tax books of said county, and who are not known to said clerk to be under the age of twenty-five years, and to which said lists so to be made and filed, the said clerks respectively shall append a certificate, that said list is fully and fairly made; and for making such list the said clerk shall receive such compensation as the county commissioners shall deem right and proper; and for failure to perform the duty hereby imposed, the said clerk to said commissioners shall forfeit and pay a fine to the state of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, in the discretion of the court, to be recovered by indictment as for a misdemeanor, and he shall be thenceforth wholly incapable of holding or exercising the duties of the said clerk to the county commissioners.

Clerks of county commissioners to make out list of white taxable males.

Penalty.

Approved and in force April 4, 1870.

1870, c. 220 repeals 1867, c. 329, sec. 3 [Sup. 1861-7, p. 137] and 1868, c. 316, sec. 2 [Sup. 1868, p. 121] and re-enacts the same sections with amendments as follows:

20. It shall be the duty of the judges of the circuit courts for each of the counties, not less than fifteen days before the commencement of each term of the court at which jurors are required to attend, in the presence of such practising members of the bar of said court as shall think proper to attend, notice of the time and place having been first given to said bar through the criers of said courts to proceed to select from the lists last finished by the clerks of the county commissioners, provided for in the first section of this act, [Supra sec. 19] and from the poll-books of the several election districts of said counties, that shall be returned and filed in the clerk's office of said courts after any general election that may be last held previously to such selection, a panel to consist of the names of two hundred persons in the several counties of Baltimore, 1870, c. 220.

Judges of circuit courts to select from lists.

Panel.